The basic authority of a United States Magistrate Judge is specified in 28 U.S.C. § 636.

To be qualified for appointment an applicant must:

- (1) Be, and have been for at least five years, a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territory of Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and have been engaged in the active practice of law for a period of at least five years;

- (4) Not be related to a Judge of the appointing district court with the degree of relationship specified in 28 U.S.C. § 458, i.e., “by affinity or consanguinity within the first degree of first cousin.”

A merit selection panel composed of seven individuals (five lawyers and two nonlawyer members of the community) will review all applicants and recommend to the district judges in confidence the five persons it considers best qualified.¹ The court will make the appointment following an FBI full-field investigation and an IRS tax check of the applicant selected by the court for appointment. The individual selected must comply with the financial disclosure requirements pursuant to the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Pub. L. No. 95-521, 92 Stat. 1824 (1978) (codified at 5 U.S.C. app. §§ 101-111) as implemented by the Judicial Conference of the United States.
